Patents Act 1977

Search and Examination Report under Sections 17 & 18(3)

Conciseness/plurality of invention

1. Your claims are not concise under Section 14(5)(b) through the multiplicity of independent claims, obscuring the nature of the invention. You will need to amend your claims, so that they relate clearly and concisely to only one invention or inventive concept.
2. The substantive examination has been deferred until such time as the claims have been suitably amended.
